VILLA AMELIE

SAINT JEAN CAP FERRAT, SAINT JEAN CAP FERRAT

Villa Amelie is an exquisite seafront estate nestled in the prestigious enclave of Saint Jean Cap Ferrat, commanding uninterrupted panoramas across the shimmering bay of Beaulieu-sur-Mer. Enveloped by cascading terraced gardens and expertly crafted retaining walls, the hillside setting unfolds into a serene Mediterranean sanctuary. Framed by mature pines and indigenous vegetation, the property is cocooned in privacy and natural elegance, where the tranquil landscape meets the brilliance of the Cote d'Azur coastline.

The interiors are defined by a refined fusion of contemporary design and timeless sophistication, where the main living room embodies luxurious living through double-height ceilings and expansive floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors that dissolve the boundary between inside and out. Sculptural bespoke seating and minimalist décor create a curated, gallery-like ambiance, while the formal dining area evokes Art Deco glamour with gold detailing, mirror accents, and refined upholstery. The fully equipped kitchen continues the theme of elevated functionality with sleek finishes and professional-grade amenities. Villa Amelie comprises a total of 8 bedrooms, distributed between a principal residence and an equally refined guest villa, ensuring exceptional comfort and privacy. The guest villa reflects authentic Provencal character, offering a harmonious contrast to the main residence while maintaining the same standard of sophistication and discretion. Together, the two structures create a unified estate designed for both convivial gatherings and quiet retreat, with carefully considered spatial flow and elegant transitions between shared and private areas.

The exterior unfolds as a true Mediterranean masterpiece, where native stonework, layered terraces, and lush landscaping form a seamless dialogue with the surrounding environment. A striking custom swimming pool is positioned to capture sweeping sea views, while generous shaded and sunlit terraces provide refined settings for alfresco dining and relaxation. Verandas and wooden decked areas extend the living experience outdoors, enhancing both daytime leisure and evening entertaining against the backdrop of the Riviera's luminous horizon.
